On Eco Day

ANUPAMA SURESH

Use and Abuse
are the Normal New Bounties of Nature
plucked by a very few Oh flamboyant listen
listen oh flamboyant!
your flashy style
has made them tear
the sobbing trees
give them thy ear

Earth beckons
Mountains weep
shiver don't you
but the Rivers do

A world to live
is making it die
you listen to none
you simply pass by

none do you see
none do you counter
none do you fight
all you do is just to banter
